[Card 1]

Card Type: [Character | Setting | Event | Source]

[Card Snippet. This text will appear upon hovering over the card in Overview. Limited number of characters.]

Card Colour: #4747AF

Border Colour: #677CE8

Border Width: [X] px

[Card Body. This is where most of the details will appear, preferably organized into different sections. For particularly lengthy text, users can create headings to quickly navigate through sections.]

[Overview is intended to be a place where users can drag and link cards to create a bigger picture. For example, they may choose to create a timeline, a hierarchy of characters, or even a map detailing local fauna and flora. Each card can be used more than once, so that they can be used in different contexts.]

However, until I have a better idea of this site’s implementation, Overview will be more of a bonus objective rather than a priority.]
